SHAKING HANDS,
WOODS AND LINK
ARE HARMONIOUS

Democratic Candidates Say They Will Abide by Result of the Primary

L. L. McCandless and Palmer P. Woods, rival for the Democratic nomination for delegate, shook hands in token of fair and open fighting, before an applauding crowd of voters at Ohua lane, Waikiki, last night.

As a result William E. Miles, Democratic campaign manager, is the happiest man in town today. He has been working hard to establish harmony in the party at the outset of its long fight this fall and thinks he has done so now. Woods declared, said Miles today, that he is not "after Link's scalp" and that if he fails to secure the nomination he will back McCandless to the finish.

Both at the Waikiki and Kalihiwaena meetings last night good crowds are reported.

At the Liliuokalani school premises tonight there will be another Bourbon gathering, the following speakers being scheduled to speak:

John A. Baker, Frank C. Benevides, John M. Bright, Frances N. Crabbe, M. H. Drummond, Joseph Lightfoot, E. K. Hanani, J. P. Makani, Wm. H. McClellan, L. L. McCandless, Manuel Olsen, M. C. Pacheco, Lester Patrie, E. H. Rose, T. J. Ryan, Jesse Uluhi, E. H. F. Wolter, Robert Ahuna, Chas. Frasher, E. J. Gay, Jack Kalakela, Joseph Kalana, H. M. Kaniho, Sam Kahele, David K. Kuphea, David M. Kuphea, Philip Manuel, E. J. McCandless, J. K. Paele, W. A. Bryan, Joseph J. Fern, M. G. K. Hopkins, G. K. Keawe, Isola Kikakahi, E. H. Lewis, George A. Lowe, John Markham, Palmer P. Woods, Robert Kaiwi, Joseph K. Kapono, J. W. K. Keiki, Sam. Littee, Albert Noble and Archie Robertson.

Mr. Kennedy did not find that the war hurt San Francisco business to any appreciable extent. He says moreover that San Francisco's big exposition next year will not, in his opinion, be much damaged by the war. Instead, the many thousands of tourists who would otherwise go to Europe will go to the big fairs at San Francisco and San Diego and Mr. Kennedy looks for a big increase in tourist travel to Hawaii.

He says that the European buying of American sugar sent the market prices soaring in a few days and he expects good prices for sugar for the next year or two with consequent increased income for Hawaii.

His trip to Scotland is indefinitely postponed on account of the war. In New York he found difficulty in getting cable news from his sister in Glasgow. At the cable office, after he had waited four days for an answer to his cable, he was told that an answer had just come to a cablegram sent to Europe ten days before his own message was filed. The strictness of the censorship as well as the enormous volume of business was much in evidence.

Mrs. Kennedy is remaining in San Francisco where she is studying vocal music with one of the noted singers and teachers of the coast.

Mr. Kennedy will return to his home in Hilo by the Wilhelmina next Thursday.

Heavy selling of several sugar stocks was reported this morning, but business on the board was light. Hawaiian Sugar alone shows a gain. Ewa is down 1/4 point and McBryde 1/4. Olaa, Oahu, H. C. & S., Onomea, Wailua and Haku are steady at yesterday's quotations.

A total of 1275 shares Olaa in 16 lots ranging from 200 to 20 in size, sold at 5. McBryde sold at 5 1/2 for 535 shares in six lots ranging from 200 to 10 reported and 30 and 5 on the board, but closed at 5 1/2 for 100 and 25. Oahu brought 2 1/2 for 185 shares in six uneven lots and 1/4 less for 30 shares, but on the board recovered the loss in a sale of 20 shares. Onomea held 32 for 335 shares in nine lots ranging from 115 to 5 in recess. Ewa sold down 1/4 in recess for a total of 80 shares and closed on the board another 1/4 lower in a sale of 5 shares at 24 1/2. Thirty shares of Wailua in four lots at 105, 110 shares of Hawaiian Commercial in four lots at 63 and 10 shares Haku at 115, no change, in either case, were other recess sales. Hawaiian Sugar registered an advance of 1/2 point in sales of 200 and 15 shares at 24 1/2, reported. No sales other than already mentioned were made at the session.

Dividends amounting to $47,500 were announced today, being Haku 50c, or $7500; Paha 50c, or $11,250; Kekaha 50c, or $7500; Pioneer 10c, or $20,000; Waiwae 21c, or $1250.

The building has been nearly four years in course of construction, and is considered by experts to be one of the finest municipal buildings in the country. Several of the city departments have already taken possession of their permanent quarters and those now housed in the city hall annex will be moved at once.

The dedicatory exercises will take the form of a band concert, addresses by prominent men and an inspection of the building by the public.

Returning from Kawaihae this morning the Inter-Island steamer Helene is today being discharged of 9160 sacks of sugar, 320 sacks of corn, 243 cases of honey and one auto. Officers report fine weather on the outward and homeward voyage.

Portland, Ore., business men are of the opinion that now is the best time for the inauguration of a Portland-Honolulu steamship service and it is said that one firm is already investigating the proposition. Direct service to the islands from that port would permit of the importation of sugar in large quantities now and materially lessen the strain of high prices, it is pointed out. Service by way of Puget Sound was recently discontinued and there is believed to be an excellent market in the islands for lumber and groceries, with the assurance of full cargoes of sugar on the return trip.

POLITICAL NOTES

Kuhio headquarters are being opened in the Kapitol building, ground floor.

L. L. McCandless is back from his stumping tour of Kauai, returning on the Kinau.

Palmer P. Woods, Democratic candidate for delegate to Congress, will go to Kauai tonight to stump the Garden Island.

Joel C. Cohen gathered a big crowd at Wailua on Saturday night. He is making as active a campaign as any candidate ever made in Hawaii.

Several people who came from Maui on Saturday predict that Charles A. Rice will beat Kuhio there by an even larger vote than the campaign managers expect.

L. L. McCandless says that he considers his prospects on Kauai as good as they were two years ago. He thinks a Democrat will be elected as one of the Garden Island representatives.

Charles A. Rice, Republican candidate for delegate, will sail for Hilo on the Mauna Kea tomorrow and will hold a meeting in Hilo on Wednesday evening. He will return next day to Honolulu.

George Guild, after deciding not to run for supervisor, is doing some very effective work for the Republican party by putting his auto into use to carry speakers to some of the meetings that are hard to reach.

George P. Kamaoaha, who is running on the Progressive ticket as a candidate for one of the senators from the island of Hawaii, is given a good chance of victory by several political wiseacres. They say that he has practically no opposition in his section of the Big Island.

L. M. Judd, president, and William Thompson, secretary of the Fifth Precinct Republican Club, Fourth district, have issued the following notice:

Notice is hereby given that there will be a meeting of the Republican Club, Fifth Precinct, Fourth Representative District, on Thursday, September 3, 1914, at 7:30 p. m. in the hall opposite to the office of the Honolulu Rapid Transit & Land Co., on Alapai street between Beretania and Young streets. The purpose of the meeting is to make nominations for the office of a county committeeman to represent this precinct on the Republican County Committee of this city and county, to be voted for at a primary to be held on Saturday, September 12, 1914, between the hours of 8 a. m. and 5 p. m.

WAR POSTPONES CAMPAIGN AND SCUDDER'S TRIP

A cablegram to Dr. Doremus Scudder this morning brought the news that the Campaign of Good Will, to be conducted under the auspices of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ of America, has been postponed, and acting on this message Dr. Scudder has deferred his contemplated trip to the mainland.

He had been called to go out as one of the speakers in this campaign and would have left on September 26 but for the message today. Recent news from the mainland indicated that several of the leaders in the movement are now in Europe, either marooned there by the war conditions or preferring to stay and be of what service they can in the present crisis, and that this absence of the leaders has caused the postponement. The campaign was to have opened on October 1.

The leaders went to Europe for the great peace conference in Bern, Switzerland. Dr. Sidney Guffek was to have gone also, but a slight ailment kept him in America.

Dr. Scudder will make no definite plans to depart until he hears the new date of the campaign opening, which has not yet been settled. The postponement may be regarded as indefinite.

RICE AND KUHIO BOTH IN PALAMA TONIGHT

Charles A. Rice and J. K. Katanianole, rival candidates for the Republican nomination for delegate, will be near together in their campaign meeting tonight. Rice is to speak at Palama pumping station tonight at Kuhio only a short distance away. Each will start about 7:30.

The Rice meetings in Manoa last night were successful and encouraging.

Following a vacation extending over a period of several days, the Hawaiian band will resume its concerts next Friday evening.

The significant and all-important thing about yesterday's primaries is the great vote polled by Republicans. Returns show that almost everywhere the total vote cast for Republican candidates doubled and trebled the total received by Progressive aspirants for the same offices.

The splendid Republican registration is proved to be solid. There were few in the party who failed to vote. The claim of Johnson and the Progressive leaders that the Republican registration meant little; that only a small percentage of it would be cast at the primaries, and that it would swing to the Progressives in November, is overturned by the returns. The zeal of Republicans in going to the polls yesterday indicates that they will do the same at the general election, and that their support then will be given to Republican nominees.
